SUMMARY OF EXCEPTIONS
University of Illinois – Chicago
33-R-0018

The Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee of the University of Illinois – Chicago has approved an exception to the minimum space requirements in Subpart D Section 3.80 Primary Enclosures of the Standards promulgated to implement the Animal Welfare Act for the temporary housing of male and female baboons (Papio sp.). The exception granted was that the male cage does not have to provide twice the minimal area required to house one animal during periods of breeding. This exception is for the period of time that a female baboon is placed in the male's cage for the purpose of breeding. This period generally does not exceed five days and the male cage contains 15 sq. ft. The exception was granted because the housing is only temporary in nature, and it is a generally accepted practice for many species that the female is taken to the male's cage for breeding. It is the consensus of the veterinary staff that the current system provides adequate space for animals to engage in species specific interactive behaviors. During the last year, 22 animals were temporarily housed under this exception.

The Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee of the University of Illinois – Chicago has approved an exception to the exercise requirements in Subpart A Section 3.80 Exercise for Dogs of the Standards promulgated to implement the Animal Welfare Act. The exception granted was to maintain two dogs for 8 weeks in metabolic cages, which met the animal's minimum space requirements, without an opportunity to exercise. The exception was granted because the animals had been dosed with a radioisotope that the institution's radiation safety office wanted contained in order to minimize both potential environmental and personnel contamination.
